From Monday June 6. to Thursday June 9. 1681.

Genoua, May 28.

THe Turkey Merchant, the Kemphorn, the Italian Merchant, the Samuel and Henry, the Advance, the Mexito, and the True love Ketch are now under Sail for Leghorn.

Bruſſels June 10. On Thurſday next the Prince of Parma begins his Journey towards Haynault, he goes firſt to Aeth, where Monſieur de Feue the Governor has made great preparations for his Highneſſes Reception, from thence he goes to Mons, and after 7 or 8 days ſtay there, to Charleroy. The Duke de Bejar, who lately arrived here from Spain, is gone for Holland, from whence he will go and viſit the Northern Courts. This Morning the Duke of Norfolk arrived here from England. From Liege we have an Account, That they are proceeding Criminally againſt thoſe Perſons (being Freemen, and formerly Inhabitants of Liege) which the took at Viſe, for having quitted the City, and joyned themſelves with its Enemies; on the other hand they write from Cologne, that that Elector had given Orders for the drawing all his Troops together, in order as is believed, to employ them againſt the City of Liege.

Hague, June 13. The States General having written to the Elector of Brandenburg, to acquaint him, that ſeveral Complaints had been made to them of the diſturbance which is given to their Subjects in their Trade, by his Electoral Highneſſes Ships, cruiſing on the coaſt of Flanders, who viſit all Veſſels they meet with, on pretence of their having Goods in them belonging to the Subjects of Spain; the Elector has anſwered, That the ſaid Frigats have no orders to viſit any Veſſel belonging to theſe Countries; and that he has Commanded the Intendant of his Maritime Affairs, to make a ſtrict enquiry into the Matter; and if it appear, that the Commanders of his Ships have given any trouble to the Subjects of this State, to call them to an account for the ſame, and to take care that no occaſion of Complaint be given them for the future. The Sieur Van Haren, one of the Deputies of the Province of Frieſland, in the Aſſembly of the States-General, has repreſented to them, That the Council of State has refuſed to Receive, and cauſe to be Regiſtred the Commiſſions, which had been given by the Stadtholder of Frieſland to ſeveral Perſons, to Command the Troops that are in the Pay of that Province, for that the diſpoſal of the ſaid Commands did ſolely appertain to the Prince of Orange, as Captain-General of the United-Provinces, which he ſaid, the Province of Frieſland could not allow of, having alwa s underſtood, that the Granting of Commiſſions within their Province, was reſerved to their own Stadtholder; The ſaid Sieur Van Haren having made this Repreſentation to the States, he is gone for Frieſland. It is ſaid that the ſaid Prince of Frieſland will be ſuddainly here, to be introduced into the Colledge of the Ridderſchap or Nobles.

Paris, June 14. An Order, as we are informed, has been ſent into the Countrey, for the ſecuring ſeveral Eccleſiaſticks, and ſending them Priſoners hither, being favourers of the Pope's Pretenſions, concerning the Regality, which is a Matter that ſeems not likely to be very ſuddainly compoſed; for our Letters from Rome tell us, that the Cardinal d' Eſtree makes not any progreſs in his Negotiation; the Pope appearing every day more and more reſolved to maintain the Rights of the Church, as he calls them. The Sovereign Chamber at Metz has made a Decree, by which they Declare greateſt part of the Dutchy of Luxemburg, to be Dependencies of the Biſhoprick of Metz.

Windſor, June 7. Since our laſt, The following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty, beſides others from Derby, Woodſtock, &c.

The Humble Addreſs of Your Majeſties moſt obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtant-Burgeſſes of Your Majeſties antient Burrough of Warwick, in behalf of themſelves, and the Inhabitants of the ſaid Burrough.

Humbly Sheweth.

THat we are duly ſenſible of our Happineſs, as well by the your Majeſties moſt Gracious Expreſſions in your late Declaration: in your Majeſties readineſs to ſatisfy the Deſires of your good Subjects, and to ſecure them againſt their fears, in the preſervation of their Religion, Liberties and Properties. In your Majeſties Care to prevent the return of thoſe Miſeries we lately felt in a moſt unnatural War and Government by a ſtanding Force. In your Majeſties great Wiſdom judging Parliaments the beſt method for healing the diſtempers of the Kingdom, and the only means to preſerve the Monarchy in its due Credit and Reſpect, both at home and abroad. In your Majeſties ſteady Reſolution of having frequent Parliaments, and both in and out of them to uſe your utmoſt endeavours to extirpate Popery, to redreſs all the Grievances of your good Subjects, and in all things to Govern according to Law.

That as with due Gratitude we acknowledge theſe great Bleſſings, ſo in all Humility we tender the Duty of our Allegiance, Loyalty, and beſt Affections to your Majeſties Service; and are unanimouſly ready with our Lives and Fortunes, to ſtand by, and aſſiſt your Majeſty; and hope we ſhall approve our Duty, in the Choice of ſuch Members to ſerve in Parliament (when in your Princely Wiſdom, your Majeſty ſhall ſee fit to call one) as will concur with your Majeſty in giving ſuch ſuitable Supplies as may enable you to ſecure your own Dominions and your Allies againſt the power of any that ſhall oppoſe your Majeſties juſt Deſigns. Praying God to preſerve your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, and to Grant you a long and proſperous Reign.

The Humble Addreſs of Your Majeſties moſt Faithful and Loyal Subjects the Grand Inqueſt of the Body of the County of Oxon.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, whoſe Names are under-written, the Grand Jury at this preſent Seſſions, for the Body of this County of Oxon, having heard Your Majeſties moſt Gracious Declaration, publiſhed amongſt us. And being deſirous in ſome meaſure to manifeſt the ſence of our ſelves and the whole County, for whom we Serve and Repreſent, of Your Majeſties unparalell'd Goodneſs and condeſcention therein, to ſatisfie all the reaſonable fears of any of Your good Subjects; As alſo to manifeſt our perfect deteſtation, and diſlike of all Popiſh, Rebellious, Factious, Fanatical, and Common wealth Principles, Practices or Deſigns whatſoever; do for our ſelves, and for, and in the name of the whole Body of this County, in all Humility and Sincerity, render Your moſt Sacred Majeſty all poſſible Thanks for the ſame; As alſo for the many other Royal Favours we have received under Your Majeſties juſt and good Government, ever ſince Your Majeſties happy Reſtauration; and particularly, for Your Majeſties vigorous Endeavours to extirpate Popery, and ſecure and maintain the Proteſtant Religion (as by Law eſtabliſhed) which with Your Gracious Promiſes of calling frequent Parliaments, and Governing according to the Laws in all things, gives us all poſſible aſſurance of enjoying the greateſt Liberty and beſt Religion that any People in the World have. And as we doubt not but Your Majeſty will be pleaſed in Your Princely Wiſdom, to take care of the conſtant execution of the Laws, to diſcourage, ſuppreſs, and puniſh all ſuch as endeavour to poiſon the Minds of Your Majeſties good Subjects, and diſturb Your Government in Church and State; ſo ſhall we be ready to aſſiſt, and ſtand by Your Majeſty with our Lives and Fortunes: which we ſhall always, (as in Duty and Conſcience bound) moſt cheerfully and readily expoſe, in defence of Your Majeſties moſt Sacred Perſon, juſt Rights, and the Proteſtant Religion (as now eſtabliſhed by Law) againſt all manner of oppoſition whatſoever. And that the Almighty God will daily more and more bring to Light and Puniſhment, all the Enemies of Your Majeſties moſt Sacred Perſon, Government, and the Proteſtant Religion, and eſtabliſh Your Throne in Peace and Proſperity: And that Your Majeſty may never want a lawful Heir to Sit upon it to the Worlds end, is our moſt hearty Prayer.

And this well Meant and Loyal Addreſs of ours, proceeding from Hearts deeply ſenſible of Your Majeſties moſt Gracious and Princely Favours to us as aforeſaid, We the Grand Jurors aforeſaid, do for, and in the name of our Selves, and the whole Body of this County, Humbly Preſent to Your Sacred Majeſty, as the general Senſe of our Selves and this whole County: And do pray the Corporation, to deſire the Right Honourable James Lord Norris, Lord Lieutenant of
